ALL TITANIC PASSENGERS SAVED LINER GASHED BUT ALL ARE RESCUED

(Special Bulletin Cable.)
MONTEAL, April 15.—Manager Mitchell of the White Star line denies the sinking of the Titanic. He reports that the damaged ship is making for Halifax under her own steam.

(Associated Press Cable.)
HALIFAX, N. S., April 15.—The White Star liner Titanic, which rammed an iceberg near Cape Race yesterday, is doomed, but the passengers are saved.

A government wireless at 4:15 o'clock this afternoon brings the news that the Titanic is sinking in shallow water near Cape Race.

The passengers have been taken aboard the Carpathia, brought rushing to assistance by wireless. Thrilling scenes were enacted when the transfer was made.

The insurance on the Titanic amounts to about $7,500,000. The great steamer is carrying $500,000 worth of diamonds.

EVERYTHING QUIET ROUND COURTS THIS MORNING

Very little was doing around the courts this morning, most of the cases being put off either until late this afternoon or until tomorrow, when the excitement of the two conventions will be over.

In the Circuit Court before Judge Whitney the Lewis divorce case was continued, but beyond that there was nothing moving. The continuance of the hearing in the Holt-Ambridge case which is before the master M. T. Simonson, will not be taken up for some time yet.

FAST TRAIN IN TERRIBLE WRECK

PUEBLO, Colo., April 15.—Many people are believed to have been killed and injured in a wreck of the Rock Island train Rocky Mountain Limited at Cuba, 11 miles north of this city.

ILLINOIS DEMS. ARE VIOLENT

CHICAGO, Ill., April 15.—The Democratic factions representing William Randolph Hearst and Roger Sullivan are warring in the State convention. Rival court orders have been brought into play. The Hearst forces battered down the doors and elected officers. The Sullivan forces went to another hall. Two delegations will be named.

LABOR ROW IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Ill., April 15.—The militia and the police were called out today to quell a labor row.

Talk Bolt At Moon

Enraged and excited by some of the rulings in the Republican convention, a number of delegates assembled at the noon hour and talked very vigorously on the proposal to bolt the convention on the grounds of the coercion that is being used in handling certain delegates. The statement was abroad that the assembly voted to bolt, but while this is doubted it is believed that wiser and calm counsels will prevail. It was thought this afternoon that the remark of George Carter made on the floor of the convention was significant when he said, "It affects the validity of this convention."

A strike of weavers at the Narragansett worsted mills in North Attleboro, Mass., has apparently ended by the discharge of the strikers.

Two men who were digging a canal at the State farm in Bridgewater, Mass., got a sudden fright one afternoon when they found the ground be-

McCANDLESS EASY DEMOCRATIC WINNER

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM

The Platform Committee, after a red-hot debate, cut out proposed "votes for women" plank, and this will not come before the convention as part of the committee's report.

Other planks recommended are for a protective tariff on sugar and coffee; a direct primary; a Public Recorder for each County; a suitable pension from Congress for former Queen Liliuokalani; adjustment of the fishery rights; and a thorough revision of the land laws.

The Democratic convention this afternoon is proceeding slowly. The platform committee took a long time for its work, and up to 3:30 o'clock little was doing.

Link McCandless is sweeping the Democratic convention just as cleanly as he and his lieutenants predicted. The dual convention plan seems sure to win out and the nomination of McCandless as delegate to Congress is a foregone conclusion. John H. Wilson will probably be named as National committeeman.

The McCarthy wing of the party showed more strength than was anticipated, polling 62 votes to the majority's 31 on the initial clash, the fight between Ben Lyons of Wailuku and John Effinger of Honolulu for the temporary chairmanship.

Later, when permanent organization was effected, Lyons was given the unanimous vote for vice chairman, showing that the hatchet had been buried with decent obsequies. The McCandless wing doesn't need to use it, and the McCarthyites can't, so the weapon is of no use at present.

Up to the noon adjournment there had been little friction on the floor, a few quibbles over rules of order being the sum total of the debate, after the first brush over the temporary chairmanship. McCandless's much-discussed ed steam roller was in evidence, and if any opposition had come up it would have been squashed flatter than the proverbial pancake by sheer weight of numbers.

Fight for Lyons.

The hour prior to the seating of the delegates was used by the scattering scouts of McCarthy's forlorn hope in working on the outside delegates to stand for their rights in securing a permanent chairman for Maui. This was the only hope of the minority for checking the rushing through of the McCandless program, with John Effinger in the chair. Four years ago Oahu had the chairmanship with Ed Watson. Two years ago O. T. Shipman of Hawaii was presiding officer, and this year, if custom was to be followed, a man from Maui should be seated.

FIRST TEST VOTE IS WON ON "OPEN BALLOT" MOVE; STRIFE MARKS CONVENTION

President Taft was endorsed by a thunderous vote of the Republican territorial convention this afternoon. Col. Sam Parker introduced a resolution endorsing Taft and urging his reelection, and instructing the Hawaii delegation to vote for him so long as his name shall be before the national convention.

It went through with a rush. Factional differences were thrown aside and the Frear and Taft-Kuhio forces alike shouted for the resolution and for Taft. The resolution was referred to the rules committee and made part of the preamble to be presented to the convention later.

W. W. Harris, candidate of the Frear League forces for temporary and permanent chairman, was elected this afternoon also, the vote being along the same lines as that of this morning. Harris's victory was already forecast by the earlier votes.

Charles Wilcox was named temporary secretary and E. J. Crawford interpreter.

At 3:10 o'clock the convention adjourned until 1 o'clock, when the Rules Committee and the Credentials Committee, named this afternoon by Harris as soon as he took the chair, are to report. The Frear League forces hold the control of both committees, Harris having made that certain by his appointments.

The whip of the Frear League leaders was cracked over the delegates to the Republican Territorial convention this morning.

Amid charges voiced by ex-Governor Carter and others, that employers of Hawaii are intimidating voters to carry out their will, amid scenes of tumult and factional strife that at times rose almost to the point of wild disorder, the program with Frear to oppose Shingle as a delegate to the national convention and with an open ballot upon it, was started on its way.

With John Wise watching the delegates from a seat on the floor, with other lieutenants watching the same delegates from seats beside them, the first test on the open-voting issue was carried at 12:30 o'clock today, by a

John H. Wise led the Frear League fight on the floor of the convention this morning, with M. F. Prosser and John Waterhouse also spokesmen. George R. Carter, A. L. C. Atkinson, Stephen L. Desha, H. L. Holstein and others were prominent for the Taft-Kuhio faction.

A previous motion, tabling a movement to oust L. Weinberger, a Frear League delegate, from the convention on the ground that he was not a citizen when elected, was also carried, by a vote of 88 to 72.

These two significant motions, both decided in favor of the Frear League, were claimed by Cooke and his aides as victory for them.

The convention took a recess at 12:30 o'clock until 2 o'clock, and as soon as the recess was declared, Cooke rushed from his seat up to the platform, and several of his lieutenants still present shook him by the hand with words of congratulation.

"This is fine!" declared the Frear League president. "It looks all right now."

This morning's meeting was characterized by a battle of forces for every point, and from the beginning much of the fight of the Kuhio-Taft forces was directed on the rulings of A. D. Cooper, acting chairman. So bitter so prolonged and so wildly disorganized were the proceedings that when adjournment was taken hardly a step toward permanent organization had been made.

Cooper was assailed by cries of "Unfair!" "Rotten!" and the like, and some of his rulings called forth jeers from all sides. He was plainly flustered again and again. An inexperienced chairman, it was his misfortune to rule over an assemblage that took advantage of every slip, and while no serious charges that he leaned to either side were made, his position was made very unenviable.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock the convention met with only one important point decided, and that was that the balloting on temporary chairman should be open instead of secret.

The vote that brought this about showed the Frear League forces strong on Maui and solid on Kauai, while Hawaii and Oahu split asunder. Here is the way the delegations lined up on the first vote:

THE TAFT RESOLUTION.

Whereas William H. Taft, President of the United States, during his present term has demonstrated beyond question his entire fitness for that high office, and by his splendid ability, unselfish patriotism, and steadfast adherence to the great principles of the Republican party, done much to promote the happiness and prosperity of the people of the United States;

Therefore, Be it resolved, that the Republican party of the Territory of Hawaii in convention assembled does hereby endorse the administration of William H. Taft, as President, and advocates strongly his re-nomination for a second term at the hands of the Republican party.

And be it further resolved, that the six delegates chosen by this convention to the Republican National Convention to be held in Chicago, June 18, 1912, be and are hereby instructed to vote for the nomination of William H. Taft as the Republican candidate for President of the United States for the term commencing March 4, 1913, so long as his name remains before the convention.

(Signed) SAMUEL PARKER.

The second vote showed but a slight switch, two votes being gained by the Kuhio-Taft bunch. There was some question as to the accuracy of the count, it being announced as 88 to 72, but the difference was not enough to be material in the final effect.

Chairman A. D. Cooper of the Republican Territorial Central Committee rapped on the chairman's table and called the convention to order at 10:15 o'clock. Most of the delegates were in their seats. He briefly explained the purpose of the convention and then introduced the Hon. H. L. Holstein, who read the official call for the Republican National Convention at Chicago.

Following this Chairman Cooper read the call for the Territorial convention. Crawford interpreted his remarks. Secretary James then called the roll. Immediately after the roll-call W. J. Coelho, whose name was not on
